

Wk1 Grammar Critical Thinking/Fact/Observation/Thesis/Speculation

Wk 2 Philology and Language Change: The primary evidence (facts)

Alphabets/Epigraphy

First Grammarian

Pannini

Bentley

Wk3 Philology and Language Change The IE Language Family

William Jones

Branches

Borrowings into English

Esom rhotacism in Latin

Medio-Passives in Italo-Celtic

P in Lusitanian

Wk4 Languages n mid-change: The problems of primary evidence and philology

Anamolists and Analogists

Dual Grammars

Shakespeare Great English Vowel Shift

Beowulf old English meter

Latin phonology

Wk5 Phonology and Language Change: The Comparative Method (Problem Set 1)

The comparative Method/NeoGrammarians Hypothesis

Grimms Law

Correspondence Sets

Wk6 The comparative method part 2

Polynesian

Wk 7 Ablaut/Laryngeals: Comp Method/Internal Reconstruction

De Saussure

Wk 8 Phonetics and Sound Change

Siever's Law and OT

Stuart Smith and murmured consonants

Typology and Glottalic Theory

Wk9 Morphology and Language Change (Problem Set 2)

Analogy

Homer

Paradigmatic Leveling

Wk10 Morphology and Language Change

Internal Reconstruction Schindler

Deep reconstruction/shallow reconstruction
Ablaut/Laryngeal's Again

Wk 11 Syntax and Language Change (Problem Set 3)
Jared and the PIE Verb
Raising and Fronting
Wackernaegel's Law

Wk12 Sociolinguistics and Language Change
Contact
Greek first person plural
Glottalic Theory and PIE
Ergativity in Hittite

Wk13 Speakers' Intuition – (Problem Set 4)
Semitic
Second Laryngeal
Folk Etymology

Wk14 Empiricism and Rationalism